The Study of the U.S. Institutes for Secondary Educators invites applications for its Summer 2016 Program.

The Summer 2016 Study of the U.S. Institutes for Secondary Educators are intensive post-graduate level academic programs with integrated study tours whose purpose is to provide foreign secondary educators and administrators the opportunity to deepen their understanding of U.S. society, culture, values, and institutions. The ultimate goal of the Institutes is to strengthen curricula and to enhance the quality of teaching about the United States in secondary schools and other academic institutions abroad.

Application procedures and forms can be accessed from this website: <http://exchanges.state.gov/susi>. Further inquiries can be directed to Ms. Marilou Apolinario at apolinariomr@state.gov.

The U.S. Embassy's Public Affairs Section will screen applications and transmit finalists to the Study of the U.S. Branch in Washington, D.C. for final review and selection. Successful candidates will be notified accordingly.

Deadline for the submission of nomination forms will be on January 11, 2016.

ksd Immediate dissemination of and appropriate action for this Advisory is desired.
