DR. MERTHEL M. EVARDOME

City Schools Division Superintendent
Division of Antipolo City

Dear Dr. Evardome,

Greetings in the Mighty Name of Our Lord Jesus Christ!

The Philippine International College (PIC) Antipolo City, in partnership with the Korean Cultural Center in the Philippines (KCC), Provincial Governor's office, City Mayor's office, shall be conducting "2015 Rizal K-POP Youth Festival: Dance and Singing Competition" to promote Korean Studies, Language and Culture in the Philippines. To be held on 28th of February, 2015, (Saturday), 4:00-7:00pm at the Ynares Center, Antipolo City, Rizal. The event is dedicated to the presentation of different K-Pop and cultural dances and singing presentations to be performed by highschool students in Rizal province.

Philippine International College (PIC) as only institution that offers Bachelor of Arts in Asian Studies major in Korean Studies in the country, would like to pursue bigger steps in advancing Korean Studies, Korean Culture and Korean Language both as a field of study and as a potential means for strengthening Filipino-Korean relations. Likewise, this important activity intends to expose our youth in today's generation, particularly in the province of Rizal, to enhance their talents and skills as purposely merge the event to Korean Popular attractions- the K-POP.

In this regard, we would like to request from your good office for endorsement of this event to the various public and private high schools in the province of Rizal. As a gratitude for the support of this activity, PIC will be giving a scholarship for two (2) to deserving students. The proceeds of the event shall be distributed to donate useful things to the participating respective schools (e.g. computer set, chairs, school supplies, etc.).

For more information, you may contact Mr. Daniel Stephen C. Bungay at 0916-288-5862 / picasianstudies@gmail.com / (02) 425-3924 / (02) 503-4764.

Thank you very much and may our good Lord bless and keep you the whole year through.

Respectfully yours,

JANE S. MONTALVO
Head, Korean Studies Department
